13.1. For the benefit of the employees, every college shall establish a Provident Fund for which it shall follow the general pattern of the Provident Fund Rules as may be laid down by the Syndicate.

13.2. Every whole time employee of the college appointed against a substantive post, shall, as a condition of his service, be required to become a depositor in the college Provident Fund.

13.3. With effect from 1-5-1973, the rate of subscription of employee shall be 10 per cent of his pay.

The contribution of the college towards the Provident Fund of a teacher shall, with effect from 1-5-1973, be 10 per cent of his pay and this shall be contributed at the end of each month. The college shall pay interest and the amount of such interest shall be placed monthly to the credit of each depositor.

When the calculation involves paise amounting to less than 50 it shall be ignored and when it amounts to 50 paise or more, full rupee shall be deducted.

Provided that where a higher rate of Provident Fund contribution already prevails, it shall not be reduced without the consent of the University.

In these Regulations 'Pay' shall mean the total amount drawn monthly by an employee of a college minus allowances, if any, but includes pay, special pay or a personal pay, if any. The monthly rate of pay of a teacher during any college year shall be taken to be that at which he draws his pay for the first month of the college year.

N.B.—The College year is from 1st April to 31st March.

Securing pass marks in the dissertation shall be compulsory.

9. The candidate may incorporate in his dissertation the contents of any work which may have been published by him on the subject and shall inform the examiners if he has done so, but he shall not submit as dissertation any work for which a degree has been conferred on him or any body else by this or any other University.

10. Every candidate for the M.Phil. degree shall be allowed to publish his work without permission of the Board of Post-Graduate Studies/Board of Control, as a research article.

11. The dissertation shall be evaluated by two examiners (i) external examiner to be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor, and (ii) the supervisor concerned :—

Each examiner shall state in his report—

- (a) Whether the dissertation be (i) accepted (ii) resubmitted after revision (iii) rejected.
- (b) Questions that the candidate would be required to answer in the viva-voce.
- (c) Whether dissertation is fit for publication by the candidate, in the original form or in revised form.
- (d) In case there is a difference of opinion between the two examiners in regard to the acceptance of thesis, the Vice-Chancellor may refer the thesis to another examiner to be appointed by him, whose decision shall be final.

12. Viva-voce shall be compulsory for all the candidates. The viva-voce will be conducted by a Board of Examiners consisting of (i) external examiner to be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor, who shall be the same person who examined the dissertation, failing him another external examiner shall be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor (ii) Head of the Department and (iii) the Supervisor concerned.

The viva-voce shall extend not only to the subject of dissertation but to his whole field of specialisation and use of research methodology.

In case a candidate is required to revise his dissertation, he shall resubmit it within a period of six months from the date the decision is intimated to him.

13. A candidate who has failed in the examination, or having completed the Courses has failed to appear in the examination, will be allowed to appear again without attending a fresh course of lectures.

14. When a candidate has failed in the examination but has obtained pass marks in the dissertation, the dissertation marks may be carried forward, if the candidate so desires, without fresh assessment of the dissertation.

15. Subject to the provision of these Regulations and Rules, the Registrar shall publish the result on the receipt of the decision of the Boards of Examiners.
